The NCFA Distributor Social was a new event for the NCFA last year. It turned out to be a great success for Distributors and Suppliers alike.

Our goal is to bring back the atmosphere once acquired by the NIFS-East Show in Columbus. This Social creates a forum in which we bring you, the top Suppliers in our industry, in contact with the most prominent distributors in our market.

The format for the NCFA Distributor Social is simple. Supplier's have three hours to touch base with as many distributors as they can. The object is to utilize your sales team efficiently in order to seek many opportunities from multiple distributor companies. This is NOT a Fastener Show. There will be no booths to set-up or samples to bring in.....it is simply what the title indicates.....a SOCIAL. This is a networking event. You get out of it what you put in.

All attending Distributors will be given a listing of the Suppliers sponsoring this event. Each Supplier will be identified to the Distributor audience at the beginning of the evening. In addition, tables will be set up around the room for Suppliers to place company literature to promote their organization. A banner will also be displayed listing all of the valued suppliers who contributed to this event.

The Supplier cost for this event will remain the same as last year at $250. This costs will include up to 3 individuals from each Supplier Company. In addition to the networking aspect of this event, suppliers will receive up to 6 drink tickets for complimentary beverages and hot hors d' oeuvres throughout the Social. If Suppliers would like to bring more than 3 employees, they may do so for an additional fee of $25/per person. This additional cost does not include free drink tickets, but a cash bar will be available.

The success of this event is dependent on the support of our valued Suppliers. The NCFA feels this is a great opportunity for all those involved and is looking forward to your support.
